Dundalk and Louth have the potential to become a creative hub within the island of Ireland. Already the region has a growing reputation for creativity, excellence and innovation and, to support this, Louth Craftmark recognised the need for a dedicated creative training and workspace facility in the county.

To meet this need Creative Spark, Louth Creative Community Hub has been developed with a focus on the development of the creative enterprise sector in this region and the use of creative practice to promote social engagement.

Providing 50% dedicated training and ‘learning lab’ facilities and 50% affordable workspace, Creative Spark will be more than just serviced workspace. Creative Spark will offer an environment where creativity can flourish and where networking and connectivity are more than just buzzwords but become a daily reality for the creative community working, learning and meeting in the hub.

just off the Eastern Bypass Road (N52), Dundalk

Creative Industries are defined as those industries which have their origin in individual creativity, skill and talent and which have the potential for wealth and job creation through the generation and exploitation of intellectual property.

Creative Industries include multimedia, games publishing, software, television & radio, film, music, performing arts, visual arts, craft, architecture, design, fashion and advertising. Tenants of Creative Spark will meet the basic criteria of having creative-based products, processes or services, or which can be identified as providing an important part of the supply chain to the sector.

Training Space
Training space will be available to rent by individuals delivering training in creative media or related business topics. Training space will be used by Creative Spark to deliver targeted specific training meeting the needs of the tenants and community groups.

Meeting Space & Coffee Dock
Meeting rooms are available to hire fully equipped with AV equipment.

Preferential rates and all-inclusive packages available for tenants. A self-service tea and coffee-making facility with comfortable seating for informal meetings is available in the central circulation space.
