Tyrone Guthrie Centre Regional Bursary 2023

Louth County Council invites artists of all disciplines to apply for this bursary which entitles the successful applicant to a two week residency at the Tyrone Guthrie Centre in Annaghmakerrig, Co. Monaghan. The Bursary will allow the applicant to work towards the completion of a particular project in a unique working environment.

Please note there is no application form for this Bursary.

To apply, the applicant must submit the following as part of the application:

- (a) A full and up-to-date C.V.
- (b) A signed letter applying for the Bursary, explaining how the award would benefit the work of the applicant, and any other relevant details.

The successful Applicant should on their letter of application prove conclusively that they will benefit considerably from such a residency. They will have shown evidence of a significant level of achievement in the relevant field.

The dates of the residency will be decided in consultation between the successful applicant and The Tyrone Guthrie Centre.

Louth County Council reserve the right not to award a Bursary, if it believes the interests of the County Council, the Bursary and the applicants would be best served by this course of action.

Submissions must be received by Louth County Council by 4pm Wednesday 12th April 2023

Submissions should be emailed to arts@louthcoco.ie Please put 'Tyrone Guthrie Residency' in the subject bar of the email submission.
