Are you someone who is interested in books and reading?
An maith leat a bheith ag léamh
as Gaeilge chomh maith?

If you are aged 16-24, we want to hear from you!

Children's Books Ireland are currently looking for a young reader to help select the next KPMG Book of the Year Awards shortlist and winners 2024.

Successful applicants must be able to read a wide volume of books, from picturebooks to young adult texts, including poetry and non-fiction, in English and preferably also in Irish.

Reading starts in June with judging taking place online between September 2023 and January 2024. This is a eight-month commitment.

We would particularly like to hear from young people from underrepresented backgrounds or communities.

To apply, please fill in an application form
